Lt. Governor to Present Senior Games Awards

- Who: Lt. Governor André Bauer, head of the South Carolina Office on Aging, will join seniors and volunteers at an awards ceremony to recognize participants in the Upper Savannah Senior Sports Classic.
- What: Seniors from around the state come to Greenwood and McCormick counties to participate in the Senior Sports Classic. This year marks the 10th anniversary of this event, which will include a golf tournament, bicycle race, 3.1 mile run, track and field events, and many other competitive games. Events will be held at the Savannah Lakes Village community outside McCormick and at the YMCA in Greenwood. Lt. Governor Bauer will be at the Savannah Lakes Village Community Center on Thursday at 12:00 to greet participants and present awards. The State Legislature placed Bauer in charge of South Carolina's network of aging programs in 2004. The Games are coordinated by the Upper Savannah Area Agency on Aging, and sanctioned by the South Carolina Senior Sports Classic organization, a member of The National Senior Games Association.
- When: The Upper Savannah Senior Sports Classic will be held on September 7, 8 and 9. Lt. Governor Bauer will be attending the lunch and awards ceremony on the 8th beginning at 12:00 noon.
- Where: Savannah Lakes Village Activity Center, 5812 US Hwy 378 West, McCormick, SC 29835
